

Paddington/ Let's Play Science

Object- a thing that can be seen or touched

Material - what an object is made from Properties – describes the material plastic fabric glass wood metal sponge transparent opaque absorbent waterproof rough shiny cannot be can be seen able to soak repels water uneven, reflects light, seen through through and liquids irregular surface up liquid smooth surface She is hidden by the opaque screen This glass is transparent A waterproof coat. The log has rough bark. The sponge is absorbent. A shiny silver spoon. smooth flexible waterproof flexible hard smooth not easily an even and repels water an even and broken or able to bend able to bend and liquids regular surface regular surface pierced A flexible spring A flexible spring. Some smooth pebbles. A hard diamond A waterproof coat. Some smooth pebbles. brittle squashy hard bumpy squashy not easilu easily crushed hard, but may uneven, raised easily crushed broken or or squeezed break easily or squeezed patches pierced The play dough is squashy The glass is brittle A hard diamond The play dough is squashy This shell is bumpy

Suitability – Having properties for a certain purpose

HOUSE - Bricks SCISSORS- Metal

COAT - Fabric

rproof, hard, shiny,

que tough

