

English

Instructions on how to mummify a body, manipulating language to reassure or disgust the reader.

Letter from Howard Carter to his father, this will be based on the reading of his diary.

Maths

Fractions continued

Ratio

Decimals and percentages

Algebra

Measurement—converting units

Measurement—perimeter, area and volume

Statistics

Science

Forces:

Gravity

Resistance,

Friction

French

Writing sentences

Weather

Reading

Read The Nowhere Emporium by Ross MacKenzie

Identify types of questions

Answer a variety of written questions and create questions about texts.

Retrieve non-fiction information from a variety of sources.

PE

Cross-country

Art

Collage to show depth and perspective

Watercolour artist study

RE

Hinduism:

Hindu creation

Living as a Hindu

Humanism:

The meaning of Humanism

Key Humanist beliefs and ideas

Humanist ceremonies and milestones

Christianity:

Easter

Grammar

Using bullet points

Manipulating language and structure

Parenthesis

Openers

Conjunctions

Passive voice

Summarising

Cohesion

Creating atmosphere

Describing sentences

PSHE

Dreams and Goals

ICT

Adding code to programme advanced scenarios using the programming concepts of conditionals, variables, event handlers and sequences.

Word processing

DT

Create a 3D object: sarcophagus

History

Explore artefacts

Compare world events at a point in history

Compare ancient beliefs with those of the modern day, understanding the differences in context

Understand the importance of end-of-life events for the Egyptians

Learn about the discovery of Tutankhamun and its significance

Geography

To understand the features of the desert biome and locate them on a map

To understand and identify different world time zones

Year 5 and 6 Spring term —Ancient Egypt

