

Andy
Goldsworthy

Andy Goldsworthy 1956 to present day

Andy Goldsworthy is a British artist known for creating beautiful art using natural materials like leaves, stones, ice, and wood. He works outdoors, arranging these materials into patterns, shapes, and sculptures. His artwork is often temporary, as it changes with the weather and seasons. Goldsworthy's art helps people see the beauty of nature and understand how it changes over time.

Useful Vocabulary

- Thick - Something that is wide or heavy, like a big paintbrush stroke.
- Thin - Something that is narrow or fine, like a small pencil line.
- Light - A pale or bright colour, like yellow or light blue.
- Dark - A deep or strong colour, like black or dark green.
- Shade - How light or dark a colour is.
- Tone - The softness or strength of a colour, like a soft grey or a strong red.
- Pattern - A design that repeats, like stripes or spots.
- Texture - How something feels, like rough bark or smooth stones.
- Pastels - Soft, chalky sticks used for drawing and colouring.
- Charcoal - A black, crumbly stick used for drawing.
- Natural objects - Things from nature, like leaves, sticks, or stones.

